Key Effect:

02 FRAME COMPOSITION

Why this works:

By placing the two main elements in opposite corners, the composition creates a strong sense of balance and tension. The empty space between them draws the viewer's eye and emphasizes the relationship between the two subjects.

LAYER A PROMPT — NBA JOSH

COPY → KLING

Cinematic music video scene. A tall athletic Black male rapper with long red-tipped dreadlocks, diamond "NBA JOSH" chain, arm tattoos, studded leather belt, black leather pants and gold watch, stands in the bottom right of frame, shot from waist up, facing slightly left toward camera. Dark wet urban street at night. Performs his hook with calm fearless energy, subtle hand gestures, relaxed confidence. Static locked-off camera. Zero camera movement. Dramatic overhead streetlight, high contrast, moody atmosphere. Near the end he glances over his left shoulder with a smirk, then turns and slowly walks out of frame. Realistic, cinematic, music video aesthetic, shallow depth of field.

LAYER B PROMPT — OFFICERS

COPY → KLING

Two white male police officers in full navy uniforms with silver badges and black tactical belts run aggressively in the upper left of frame, full body visible, running hard toward the right side of screen. Dark wet urban street at night. Arms pumping intensely, leaning forward, determined urgent expressions. Dramatic high contrast night lighting. Motion blur on their bodies. Static locked-off camera. Cinematic, realistic, 2-3 seconds of strong running motion.

07 CAPCUT COMPOSITE – STEP BY STEP

- 1 Import Layer B (Officers) as base track
Open CapCut → New Project → Add the officers clip to the main timeline first. This is your background.
- 2 Loop the officers clip to 15 seconds
Tap the clip → Copy → paste it back-to-back until total length reaches 15 seconds. Or use CapCut's Loop feature if available.
- 3 Add Layer A (Josh) as overlay
Tap + → Overlay → import the Josh clip. Place it over the officers timeline. Scale and position him to the bottom-right of frame.
- 4 Apply blur to the officers layer
Select the officers clip → Effects → add a soft blur filter. This creates depth and the shallow DOF look, pushing them into the background.

- 5

Add motion blur to officers

Select officers layer → Video Effects → search Motion Blur. Apply at medium intensity to reinforce the running energy.
- 6

Colour grade the whole scene

Select all → Adjust: Brightness -10, Contrast +20, Saturation -15. Then add a Cinematic LUT filter from CapCut's filter library (look for teal/orange presets).
- 7

Add vignette

Go to Effects → Vignette. Apply at 30–40% intensity. This darkens the corners and focuses attention on Josh.
- 8

Export at highest quality

Tap Export → select 1080p at 60fps. Save to camera roll.
